

Year 1	In Y1 Children should... <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Listen to and discuss a wide range of fiction, poetry, plays, non-fiction and reference books or text books • Increase their familiarity with a wide range of books, including fairy stories, myths and legends and retelling these orally • Recognising some different forms of poetry • Prepare poems and plays to read aloud and to perform
Core Texts			Rhymes and traditional tales
Autumn	 If all the world were ... - This picture book develops one of the central themes of a poem – protecting those we love and preserving their memory. Alison Colpoys uses delicate, slightly muted shades of primary colours interleaved with brown as she depicts the final year of their time together through the seasons.	 Winter Sleep - Sean Taylor & Alex Morss Taking a walk through the seasons, the pictures work alongside the rich, poetic language to create a sense of awe, wonder and joy in the natural world. An appended information section provides an illuminating guide for young explorers.	 The Jolly Postman – Janet and Allan Ahlberg An undoubted children's classic this book has been entertaining readers since its first publication in 1986.	The Three Little Pigs Little red riding hood Hansel and Gretel Jack and the Beanstalk The Gingerbread Man The Little Red Hen Chicken Licken The Enormous Turnip Puss in boots Rapunzel Sleeping Beauty Beauty and the Beast Cinderella Dick Whittington Goldilocks and the Three Bears Princess and the pea Rumpelstiltskin The Elves and the shoemaker Three Billy Goats Gruff The Princess and the Frog The Ugly Duckling The Big Pancake The Magic Porridge Pot
Spring	 Rapunzel – Bethan Woolvin A witty twist on a favourite fairy tale, this bold story removes the handsome prince altogether, making Rapunzel the mistress of her own destiny (2017)	 The Last Wolf – Mini Grey A subtle message on conservation that sits perfectly with this age-old fairy tale. (2019)
Summer	 The Snail and the Whale – Julia Donaldson Published in 2003, The Snail and the Whale is a delightful tale of adventure and friendship – a modern classic.	 The Secret Sky Garden – Linda Sarah & Fiona Lumbar A wonderful story sharing the impact small actions can make on a community and on ourselves and one that could be used to encourage children to value and consider how to improve their own environment as they explore the theme of responsibility for their surroundings.		